On the following page is a piece by Sadao Watanabe (1913–1996) called Adoration of the Three Kings, depicting the visitation of the Wise Men to the Christ child. Born and raised in Tokyo, Sadao Watanabe was baptized on September 7, 1930. In 1943, he exhibited his first biblical print, “The Story of Abraham,” at an exhibition of the Tokyo Prefectural Craftsmen. By 1985, he had completed 380 prints, fifteen of which concerned the Three Wise Men. His work is found in collections around the world including Tokyo Museum of Modern Art, Japan Folk Art Museum, New York Museum of Modern Art, Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, Art Institute of Chicago, Vatican Museum of Modern Religious Art, and the British Museum.
