

Paper Jewellery Box

Paper Jewellery Box can be made easily using little creativity and patience. This will surely be appreciated as a nice and useful Friendship Day Gift.

Things Needed:

An old box (about 4 inches in length and width)
Cloth or construction paper
Old magazines with lots of colourful pictures
Colourful buttons
Colourful ribbons
Glitter
Sequins
Scissors
Glue

Method:

1. Cut little pictures from the magazine and glue them in any way you want to the outside of the box. Make sure you covered it well, and let it dry.
2. Glue a cloth or construction paper in the inside of the box to make it look neat.
3. Stick pieces of ribbon on the sides for a border.
4. Glue the buttons in the corners or anywhere you think it might look pretty.
5. Sprinkle glitter to give it a shiny appearance. Use the sequins for making the box personalized by creating letters of your friend's name with it.

Note: This method can be used to make a vase, trash can, pencil cup, or a picture frame.
